PREFACE

Established in 1968, CARSURIN is a private company specializing in the field of technical services to reduce client risk through the methods of testing, inspection, certification and survey. CARSURIN continues to expand its service coverage according to the demands. Information and our products can be found at our web page at www.CARSURIN.com. CARSURIN gives special attention to its clients by providing quality services with integrity. In the process, its special business culture has encouraged the Company to give its best services.

For this reason, CARSURIN has committed to be a member of the TIC (Testing, Inspection, and Certification) Council and implement a Code of Conduct and Compliance Program that refers to the TIC Council's Compliance Code. The Code is implemented to all businesses and offices of CARSURIN as a standard that must be applied to all Employees and managers in CARSURIN.

The document consist of two parts as follows:

i. CARSURIN Code of Conduct

References on professional, technical and business conduct and ethics on integrity, conflicts of interest and data protection, confidentiality, bribery, fair business conduct, health and safety, and fair labour.

ii. CARSURIN Compliance Programme

Provides an explanation on requirements of the Code of Ethics and Conduct in CARSURIN

To ensure the effectiveness of the implementation, we are required to ensure that:

- The implementation of the Code of Conduct and Compliance Program are approved by the TIC Council.
- Policies and procedures are in accordance with the Code of Conduct.
- We provide sufficient training to our staff about the meaning and requirements of the Code of Conduct.
- We are monitoring our compliance with the Code of Conduct.

- We submit our Compliance Program to an independent auditor, which subsequently will report its findings to the TIC Council.

CARSURIN CODE OF CONDUCT

I. BACKGROUND

CARSURIN is a private company specializing in the field of technical services to reduce client risk through the methods of testing, inspection, certification and survey. We have a proud history in providing quality services with high integrity. In the process, our special business culture has encouraged us to give our best services.

We want to achieve our goal to further develop our business culture in order to increase market share through client and employee satisfaction at the highest level, which ultimately will increase the company's revenue.

The trust of our clients, colleagues and the community-at-large is very dependent on the reliability of good behavior and commitment of every individual in CARSURIN. Therefore, each and every Employee must have a behavior that reflects the image of CARSURIN so that we can achieve market success.

We strive, in all that is done, to achieve a specific and sustainable mission statement. More specifically in taking consideration of our commitment to implement an integrated ISO management system (ISO 9001, ISO 14001, ISO 45001), ISO 17020, ISO 17025, ISO 17065 and the TIC (Testing, Inspection, and Certification) Council.

We have set up a Company Policy regarding values and responsibilities, as the basis for assessing the specific actions of our day-to-day business activities in order to meet the standards provisioned in this Code as a guideline to improve the understanding to support the implementation of daily working activities, which ultimately shall help us to become a service provider that is successful in the global market. The Code of Conduct set forth in this document is the minimum standard that applies to all Employees and managers at CARSURIN. The Code of Conduct provides a guidance that assists Employees in dealing with legal and ethics issues as encountered in their daily working activities, thus promoting and protecting the integrity of CARSURIN.

For the purposes of this Code of Conduct, PT. CARSURIN and each affiliated entity, whether wholly owned or 51% or more of its ownership is owned by PT. CARSURIN, shall hereinafter be referred to as "CARSURIN" or the "Company", whether individually or as a whole.

All Employees are allowed to submit questions or information by contacting the manager or relevant division (such as internal audit, business control, HR or others). An anonymous hotline is provided by the Company for the Employees, to provide confidential information and instructions. The Board of Compliance and the Chief Compliance Officer ensure that existing regulations are continuously adhered to. The Compliance Officer provides advice should a discrepancy occur. The Compliance Officer will investigate and handle in the event of any cases occurring. If necessary, the Compliance Committee will decide the outcome cases, where it is required. The Compliance Program is clearly stipulated and enforced.

II. VALUES AND SCOPE

All Employees must be reliable for professional matters and act with personal and professional integrity to achieve their best performance. All Employees must uphold the good reputation and image of CARSURIN and refrain from actions that could have a negative impact on the Company. Hereinafter referred to as the "Employee" are permanent and part-time employees, managers, senior managers and Directors of CARSURIN. This Code of Conduct is binding for all Employees of the Company.

No individual is allowed to violate this Code of Conduct, or deviate from this Code of Conduct unless required by law under terms that are truly acceptable and justified.

III. GENERAL COMPLIANCE

We obey the law and the requirements of law as a basic principle. All Employees must comply with legal regulations and apply other requirements such as accreditation standards. The same also applies to internal guidelines, principles, and business rules. We shall not to get involved in all activities that are clearly intended to manipulate the law or other regulations. We are used to obeying the laws, regulations and standards of the country/region where we work, corresponding to the validity limit set in the region unless they conflict with the universal ethics principles. Where possible, we will use our professional and critical skills to be improved and developed. All Employees are required to be responsible for the property of the Company.

IV. CONFIDENTIALITY

The security of our client's personal data and the confidentiality of information are very important and must be ensured at all times; namely before, during and after providing services within the agreed scope. This includes technical data or design, patent registration, strategy, investment, sales and marketing plans, financial forecasts, client database, and others. The confidential information should be protected from access by third parties or other parties that are not related to the information. Employees who have access or control over confidential information or information relating to the ownership, must take appropriate security measures to prevent misuse and disclosure of the confidential information.

Any attempts by unauthorized individuals to access confidential data is a violation of the Code of Conduct and should be reported immediately to a manager or officer of data protection or security officers. Regardless of how the information or data are stored, whether in a data storage device, on paper, or by other means, any internal information or personal information management or appraisal or business processes including internal procedures and other regulations, are considered as confidential, except as determined and publicized by the competent authority.

V. CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND DATA PROTECTION

Employees must avoid situations that may cause a conflict of personal interest and data protection. In the event of any personal and data protection conflict cannot be avoided, it should be reported to the manager. And if there are doubts about the conditions that occurred then the Employee may request for consideration of his/her superiors.

i. Avoiding Personal Conflict and Business Interest and Data Protection

All Employees are required to avoid conflicts between personal and business interests with regulations and data protection with the following rules:

- Offering and contract can only be created and intended for the benefit of the Company's business.

- All purchases must be made in accordance with the procurement and purchasing regulations.
- The financial interests of individuals or personal benefit of the clients, suppliers, contractors or other business partners of CARSURIN are contrary to the Code of Conduct.
- Direct investment in contractors, clients or other companies that will be acquired may create a potential conflict of interest.
- It is not allowed to issue the evaluation results, testing or certification that is contrary to the prevailing rules

CARSURIN already has identified potential sources of disasters specifically related to data protection with a good plan, which is as follows:

Devices that must be saved	Potential Disaster Sources					Priority
	Electronic Security	Pandemic Diseases	Fire	Power Outage	Physical Security (Flood Storm Sabotage)
Servers	V	V	V	V	V	1
IT & Telephone Equipment			V	V	V	2
Media / Software			V		V	3

To support data readiness, plan information for preparatory steps to deal with potential sources of disaster is delivered to all Employees.

ii. Offering and Receiving Benefits/Gifts

The Employees must not offer or receive benefits or gifts in carrying out professional duties which may affect the business decisions. Gifts or invitations issued to business partners should be limited and should not be intended or interpreted as affecting business decisions. Restrictions on gifts and invitations are determined in accordance with the common business practice and can be changed in accordance with the prevailing regulations. Some restrictions are described in more details in CARSURIN's Compliance Program and other restrictions are defined separately in accordance with the existing principle of predominance.

Gifts and invitations which value are higher than the norm/local customs, or higher than the limit which considered prevalent/general, are not permitted

iii. Corruption

The impartiality and integrity of government officials should not be broken. Thus, officials, government representatives, representatives of regulatory authorities, competent politicians or representatives of other public institutions should not be offered gifts or invitations for meals or other activities that could damage their impartiality or integrity.

Invitation for lunch and dinner is only allowed within the limits prescribed by law and local customs. The perception of offering or receiving benefits should be avoided. At every service or task being performed, any money or other benefits which is promised or paid to the authorities or their representatives are not allowed for themselves or the third parties. This condition does not apply to the payment of fines and fees charged formally. In this case, it should be carried out.

Employees are not allowed to offer survey, inspection or certification services without payment or without a guarantee of conclusive results. It is prohibited to do bribery and collusion. Corruption is a criminal offense and will usually lead to legal proceedings.

VI. MONEY LAUNDERING

All Employees at every scope of duties are required to ensure that the product/service of CARSURIN and enterprise and also the process of merger or acquisitions made by the Company are not being used for illegal purposes such as money laundering. Before consummating a business agreement, Employees must gather sufficient information about the transaction purpose and the partnership requested by certain clients. This also applies to information relating to the reputation of the clients or potential partners along with their partner, parent company, and subsidiaries.

Financial benefits, other benefits which are material or non-material obtained without reward (sponsorship) are allowed as long as they follow the guidelines and provisioned within the framework of sponsorship. Resources and the purpose of the sponsorship should be conveyed clearly and known by the Company in overall. In the case of doubt, suggestions and advice can be obtained and consulted with the related parties who appointed by the Company (for example, finance/tax division) or the Chief Compliance Officer, anything higher than the limit which considered acceptable are not permitted.

VII. COMPLIANCE WITH THE LAW OF COMPETITION AND JUSTICE IN THE COMPETITION AND MARKETING

CARSURIN follows the fair and legal principles in achieving its financial and commercial targets. We believe in a free market and socially responsible organization. We do not participate in activities that aim to achieve commercial advantages through illegal or unethical practices.

In particular, it is forbidden to cooperate with the competitors in terms of pricing, or to discuss or agree on the division of territories, customers, or sources of supply.

Moreover, exchanging information with the competitors that could be construed as an agreement on prices, price changes, discounts or pricing components, terms and conditions, costs, capacities, technical developments and investments, circulars and offering contents or common actions undertaken associated with suppliers or customers is not allowed.

It is also not allowed to give a parallel offer without the intention of doing business, but it is only intended to provide information to competitors or affect the price. We do not make false or misleading statements for promotional purposes.

10 CARSURIN's Principles of Fair Trade:

1. Opportunities for Disadvantage Producers
2. Transparency & Accountability
3. Fair Trade Practices
4. Fair Payment
5. No Child Labour, No Forced Labour
6. No Discrimination, Gender Equity, Freedom of Association
7. Good Working Conditions

8. Capacity Building
9. Promote Fair Trade
10. Respect for the Environment

VIII. CUSTOMER ORIENTATION AND BUSINESS PARTNERS

Customers are the key to our success. Thus, they must be treated fairly and respectfully, and receive professional-standard advice and supports. Customers should be placed in a position where they are able to make decisions based on CARSURIN's services. To the extent possible, all of our business partners, suppliers, agents, distribution partners or commissioning agents of services must also be bound to this Code of Conduct.

IX. SERVICE TRANSPARENCY

Our test results and report data shall only reflect the observations and facts. If a matter occurred where the test results and the report can affect the safety and well-being of consumers who use the products and services of our customers, then special attention should be given to the set of data, legibility, confidentiality, integrity and availability of our report data.

Results of CARSURIN's tests and reports are always published in a complete and accurate manner in accordance with the latest technical and professional standards. It is prohibited to intentionally give false or misleading information or inputs in the document, results, reports, calculations or descriptions.

All information and work result must be clear, understandable and can be reproduced. Customers have the right to receive the necessary information and a detailed explanation of how the work can be achieved. Processes and expert knowledge that is used in determining the work result must be disclosed upon request. Opinions of experts should be given the same mark.

X. THE INTEGRITY OF INFORMATION / COMMUNICATION

All documents, files and reports, regardless of whether they are used for internal and external purpose, shall be maintained in a correct and official manner and contain accurate, truthful, trustworthy and valid/official information, particularly as applies to balance sheet data or other files that are part of or related to accounting, including invoicing documents.

The official statement to the media representatives and correspondence with the investors or representatives of agencies in the financial markets is an exclusive area that is the responsibility of the Board of Directors or its appointed representative and can only be performed by authorized personnel. Requests from external parties should be forwarded to such authorities. The same thing applies to statement to the government or its authorized representative. All official communications to external parties, in general, will be checked and signed by the person who was not involved in the drafting/formulation (four-eye principle).

XI. EXCEPTIONS AND NON-ASSOCIATION

Since CARSURIN has declared that it adheres to the principles that represent the values of ethics and uphold the standards, thus CARSURIN does not maintain business relations with companies that consciously violate the values of the prevailing principles and standards. Our guidance is the regulations of the TIC Council. This can cause the termination of the business relationship if a company is involved in the payment of bribes and violating the environmental laws. The relevant information should be reported to a designated division or to the compliance office.

At the time when the business agreement is already established and CARSURIN becomes aware of a serious problem which violates the Code of Conduct, then the problem / information will be reported to the division appointed by the management or to the compliance office. This authority will then decide how to follow-up will be taken. If it has become clear that the behavior of the clients/partners will not change immediately, the business relationship should be terminated. A clause to this effect should be included in the general terms and conditions of the Company's operations. It should also ensure that this clause has become an integral part of the contractual business relations.

XII. ENVIRONMENT PROTECTION

CARSURIN is actively involved in environmental protection and emphasizes this commitment in its mission statement, environmental guidelines, and environmental insight. As our readiness to provide services for the benefit of humanity and the environment, CARSURIN encourages all Employees to consider the consequences of their actions to the people, environment, and society. All Employees must be aware of the environmental impact of their activities and should avoid or reduce damage to the environment in accordance with their capabilities.

XIII. CHARITY AND SPONSORSHIP

Donations from the company, sponsorship, and involvement in charities are only permitted within the framework of applicable laws and CARSURIN's internal guidelines. Organization or project must be regarded as generous and charitable if gives contribution to education, scientific activities, arts organization or cultural or social projects. Donations to political parties are only allowed if approved in writing by the Board of Directors. Acceptance of donations must be requested whenever possible.

XIV. EMPLOYEES PROTECTION

All Employees are protected by the standards relating to health and safety in the workplace. Applicable national law, international conventions and the internal agreements between the Group and the Employee's representative bodies. This protection is available to all Employees.

XV. HEALTH AND SAFETY

Employees who consume drugs that can affect their ability to drive a vehicle or operate equipment safely, however, continue to use vehicles and machines at work can harm himself and others. Alcoholism or drug dependence affects safety in the workplace and reduce performance. CARSURIN provide support in finding counseling or professional services (medical).

CARSURIN is committed to proactively promoting and communicating to provide health and safety working conditions for the prevention of work-related injuries & diseases by eliminating hazards / impacts and reducing occupational health and safety risks.

XVI. IMPLEMENTATION, COMPLAINT PROCEDURES AND ABUSE REPORT

All Employees must respect all the rules and principles contained in this Code of Conduct and behave in accordance with the regulations. Managers and senior managers are responsible for ensuring that all members of their team are familiar with the Code of Conduct and discussed regularly. Managers should set an example with regard to the Code of conduct and examples of behavior implemented in the workplace. Implementation of the Code of Conduct or other internal guidelines is not clear.

If Employees find deviations from the Code of Conduct or hear of any mistakes or serious violations, particularly with regard to cases of fraud, corruption, violation of the law on competition, mistakes in financial reporting, or other behaviors that can lead to prosecution or in violation of the law in force, they should notify the manager or a designated body including anonymous hotline (see point 1). This information will be treated confidentially and will be used to investigate the case thoroughly and apply for necessary and appropriate corrective action. In serious cases, internal measures can be taken or inform the public prosecution service in order to avoid losses to the Company.

All Employees, clients, partners and representative bodies have the right to register complaints by one specified person in charge. This person should process complaints and inform the complainant on the corrective measures. A complaint note will be made and statistical data associated with the note of the complaint will be available.

Employees who report an error or violation of the Code of Conduct will not suffer any harm unless it was proved that he/she has deliberately given the wrong information or with malicious intent.

Apart from the fact that each violation case could damage the reputation of CARSURIN, a violation of the Code of Conduct can lead to disciplinary or legal action resulting in financial penalties or other sanctions. To ensure the integrity of the appointed supervisory body and to protect the Employees, the Board of Directors has fully waived their rights related to information in this case.

XVII. APPLICATION OF SUPPORTING REGULATIONS

Related to CARSURIN's code of ethics as attached above, each CARSURIN Employee always carries out duties and obligations in dealing with other parties in accordance with Company internal regulations and applicable laws and regulations. For this reason, CARSURIN also attaches regulations relating to the application or implementation of certain parts of this Code of Conduct. These regulations will also deal with questions about interpretation and procedures that apply internally to CARSURIN. Furthermore, related to laws and regulations as mentioned above, will be attached in Appendix I.

XVIII. CLOSING

This Code of Conduct applies to CARSURIN. National regulations or special regulations of a region that do not conflict with the rules set forth in this document are allowed and supported. The rights of worker participation committee are not affected. The implementation of this Code of Conduct will be monitored. Modification of this Code of Conduct is possible from time to time. Senior managers and managers concerned should ensure that all Employees are familiar with the current version of the Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct is part of the general employee training and training and personal development.

CARSURIN'S COMPLIANCE PROGRAMME

This section provides requirements for the implementation of the CARSURIN Code of Conduct in all businesses and business practices.

I. IMPLEMENTATION

II. COMPLIANCE PROGRAMME

- 2.1. By issuing CARSURIN's Code of Conduct and Compliance Program, CARSURIN confirms the implementation of TIC Council Compliance Code.
- 2.2. CARSURIN has sent a copy of this Code of Conduct to the General Director of TIC for verification against the TIC Council Compliance Code.

III. COMPLIANCE OFFICER AND COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE

- 3.1. The Board of Directors has the ultimate responsibility for the Compliance Program; one of the board members will be the Compliance Officer, and he/she is responsible for implementing the compliance program for the entire organization of CARSURIN. A deputy may be appointed to assist the Compliance Officer. The appointed deputy should be a Manager or Senior Manager.
- 3.2. CARSURIN has established a Compliance Committee to carry out a regular review of the Program progress and make Policy Guidance. The Compliance Committee consists of, at least, a member of the Board of Directors as Chairman of the Committee, Head of Division and Compliance Officer.

IV. HUMAN RESOURCES

- 4.1. Employee Requirements
Prior to the offer of employment, CARSURIN Employee Candidates shall be informed about the Code of Conduct and the principles presented in section 1 of this document.
- 4.2. Employee's Commitment

CARSURIN will ensure that:

- Each and every Employee will be given a copy of the Code of Conduct and Compliance Program and will be asked to sign a statement that the person has received, read and understood the Code of Conduct and Compliance Program. These notes will be recorded in the Employee's file folder.
- Head of the division or department who reports directly to the Board of Directors will be required to sign an annual statement (see Attachment IA) which states that the Code of Conduct and Compliance Program have been implemented in the area that becomes his/her responsibility.
- Each and every Employee will be asked to sign, as the requirements of his/her employment, a confidential agreement to prevent the disclosure of any confidential business information obtained during his/her working period to another party. Employees will not suffer demotion, penalty or other adverse consequences arising from the strict implementation of this program even if it resulted in the loss of business.

4.3. Training

All Employees, including Manager, are required to attend the Compliance Program training. Records regarding the completion of this training will be kept in a file folder of each Employee.

4.4. Consultation On the Development of Code of Conduct

All CARSURIN Employees have the opportunity to provide input to the development of codes of conduct at the time of his/her performance appraisal, training sessions or review meetings, or directly to the Compliance Officer.

4.5. Employee's Performance Appraisal

CARSURIN ensures that during the performance appraisal process, every Employee has the understanding of the Code of Conduct and Compliance Program.

4.6. Employee "Help Line"

CARSURIN has established the provisions regarding a "Help Line" (telephone line and e-mail address, directly to the Compliance Officer) which enables Employees to obtain guidance on any questions or problems relating to the implementation or interpretation of the Compliance Program. At the request of the Employee, the question will be dealt with confidentially and the anonymity of Employees should be protected in a fair manner.

V. SECURITY MEASURES

CARSURIN has implemented security measures in its organization area that contains confidential business information to ensure that (i) access is restricted to authorized personnel only and (ii) documents/data are stored in secured areas and destroyed in a safe manner.

VI. COMMUNICATION TO THE EXTERNAL PARTY

CARSURIN ensures effective external communication by the following means:

- Disclose the Code of Conduct by distributing them to the customers and through the Company's website: www.CARSURIN.com
- Provide an internet-based channel on its website (www.CARSURIN.com) for inquiries, complaints or feedbacks from relevant parties.

VII. REPORT ON VIOLATIONS

CARSURIN's Employees are encouraged to report details of violations or alleged violations to (a) CARSURIN's Compliance Officer or his authorized representative or (b) the supervisor of the Employee or member of senior management or the employee's internal auditors who will then inform the Compliance Officer or the Board of Directors. Employees who report such violations should be fully protected against any form of retaliation unless the Employee has acted malicious or has bad intentions. If required, the anonymity of Employees must be protected in a fair manner. CARSURIN's Employees are required to report any request for, or offer, payment or improper profit/advantage acknowledged by the Employees in the same manner as specified in section 7.1.

VIII. INVESTIGATIONS AND SANCTIONS

- 8.1. CARSURIN's Compliance Officer or designated representative will initiate, if necessary, an investigation for violation of the Program which is reported to him/her or under his/her consent.
- 8.2. CARSURIN determines the documented procedures for the handling of investigations and sanctions that include requirements for:
 - 8.2.1. Administration of the records of all reported violations and subsequent actions.
 - 8.2.2. The perpetrators of the alleged violation have the right to be heard.
 - 8.2.3. The Compliance Committee shall decide corrective actions and the appropriate disciplinary action to be applied when a violation has been established. Such action may include warning, demotion, suspension or dismissal.
 - 8.2.4. The Compliance Officer shall receive a progress report from the appointed representative or the management at the location and prepare a periodic summary report to be submitted to the Compliance Committee related to the investigation, violations and implementation of corrective actions and disciplinary measures.

IX. EFFECTIVENESS OF PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION

- 9.1. Management Statment

CARSURIN requires the Head of Division and/or Department who reports directly to the Board of Directors on an annual basis across the organization to prepare and sign the Compliance Statement. This Compliance Statement is received by the Compliance Officer, from all locations and/or activities that apply, which in turn will submit an annual report summary to the Compliance Committee.
- 9.2. Internal Audit

CARSURIN requires the head of internal audit, as part of the internal audit plan, to verify that the Code of Conduct and regulations that have been implemented in the organization and that the Management Statement, under Section 9.1 (a) have been completed and (b) reflect the compliance with the Code and Regulations and (c) in the case of sites selected for audit, truly reflect the actual situation. The audit should review the course of the process which includes testing, in sampling basis, to ensure the application and implementation of an effective program. The Check List of internal TIC Council Compliance audit will be used as a guide or reference as appropriate.

Compliance findings resulting from such audits should be reported to the Compliance Officer who will then submit a summary report to the Compliance Committee. The Compliance Officer and/or Compliance Committee will follow up with actions if necessary.

9.3. External Audit

9.3.1. Frequency

The effectiveness of the implementation of this program will be investigated at least once a year by the appointed Independent External Auditor Firm.

9.3.2. Independent External Auditor Firm

The Independent External Auditor Firm which appointed to conduct the audit is as follows:

(a) The appointed Independent External Auditor Firm is conducting an audit of CARSURINCARSURIN's consolidated financial statements or other external audit firm which trusted to audit CARSURINCARSURIN's compliance program and, in other cases, (ii) is a member of national professional accounting organization which recognized or approved by TIC Council and qualified to perform the Compliance Program verification.

9.3.3. The Use of Complementary External Auditor Firm

(a) If in one of the countries where CARSURINCARSURIN operates the auditing firm has no office and it is required to use a different external audit firm which conforms with the division or the Audit correspondent company which conducting audit with the same method and approach, CARSURINCARSURIN will report to the General Director of TIC Council related to the arrangements which aim to ensure that the audit of the implementation of the program is achieved consistently across all locations. In such cases, the CARSURINCARSURIN's external audit firm will act as a coordinator of other external audit firms, and prepares consolidated underwriting reports.

- (b) The Auditor may, with the approval of CARSURINCARSURIN, utilize the services and reports of independent management certification system or accreditation body that have conducted an audit on CARSURINCARSURIN's management system based on international standards. However, the certification and accreditation bodies or their reports will not be used for the financial verification and related aspects, including the requirements of the Anti-bribery and Article 10, without the approval of TIC Council Board.

9.3.4. Notification to TIC on the Appointed External Auditor Firm

Before appointing the external audit firm(s), or before every proposal on changes, CARSURINCARSURIN will send the details to the General Director of TIC Council to conform with TIC's requirements.

9.3.5. Scope of Audit

To indicate that CARSURINCARSURIN's service is in accordance with TIC Council Compliance Code, then CARSURINCARSURIN requires the external audit firm to:

- (a) Conduct, at least, assurance Audit Procedure in accordance with ISA which adapted for TIC's Compliance Code:
- i. Verify whether the current Code of Conduct and Regulation is the same version that was sent to and approved by TIC Council.
 - ii. Verifying whether CARSURINCARSURIN have established a compliance program in accordance with the requirements of the code of ethics.
 - iii. Determine the existence of internal management system, processes and control of (a) alleged violation, (b) notes from the Compliance Committee and (c) training on compliance.
 - iv. Reviewing the management consolidated financial statements for::
 - ❖ Donations to political parties
 - ❖ Charitable Donations and Sponsors

- ❖ Intermediary Partners Remuneration
 - ❖ Unreasonable expenses related to gifts, entertainments and reimbursement of expenses and verify whether the statements:
 - Reconciliation between the accounting records and supporting documentation has been approved by the Compliance Committee, where applicable.
 - v. Verify that all Management Compliance Statement has been accepted and follow-up testing of the system has been done to ensure that all areas of concern or reports have been addressed or acted upon by the Compliance Officer or, where possible, by his/her appointed representatives.
 - vi. Area and other audit procedures deemed appropriate by the external audit firm and approved with CARSURINCARSURIN's Service.
- (b) Conduct Assurance Review Procedure, as part of 9.3.5 (a), with sampling audit both from the fields/locations of CARSURINCARSURIN's services as well as from systems and documentation applicable for those locations. The audit sampling should be agreed between the auditor and CARSURINCARSURIN, based on compliance risk assessment and consider CARSURINCARSURIN's Organization and available specificity.
- (c) Maximizing Corporate Internal Audit function of CARSURINCARSURIN or internal Quality Auditor to avoid duplication of work and minimize costs.
- 9.3.6. "Assurance Report" From the External Auditor Firm
- (a) CARSURIN shall request the External Auditor Firm to issue Assurance Report in accordance with the Assurance Report format, In Attachment B, and can be adjusted in accordance with the reporting format that is considered appropriate by the external audit firm and/or as required by professional standards.

- (b) CARSURIN will instruct the external audit firm to send a copy of the Assurance Report to the General Director of TIC Council within 6 months from the closing date of CARSURINCARSURIN's fiscal year.

9.3.7. Reported Conditions

Conditions that can be reported (mismatch findings) are the ones detected by the external auditor during the Assurance Review Procedure. External Auditor's Assurance Report

"Assurance Report of CARSURIN's Compliance Programme"

1. Audit Purpose

We conduct a procedural review of the management process and CARSURINCARSURIN Compliance Program report for the year or for the period from to, in order to determine if it is in accordance with the requirements of TIC Council Compliance Code dated and if it has been properly implemented in CARSURINCARSURIN's Organization.

CARSURINCARSURIN is responsible for the development and maintenance of management processes and internal reporting process of the Compliance Program. Our responsibility is to report the management and reporting processes of the compliance program in accordance with our Procedure Reviews:

2. Scope of Audit

The scope of the audit procedure is to:

- i. Verify whether the current Code of Conduct and Regulation is the same version that was sent to and approved by TIC Council.
- ii. Verifying whether CARSURINCARSURIN has established a compliance program in accordance with the requirements of the code of ethics.
- iii. Determine the existence of internal management system, processes, and control of (a) alleged violation, (b) notes from the Compliance Committee and (c) training on compliance.
- iv. Review the management Consolidated Financial Statement for:
 - Donations to Political Parties
 - Charitable donations and sponsorship
 - Unusual expenses related to gifts, entertainments and reimbursement of expenses.
 - Remuneration of the Intermediary Partners.

And verify if statements regarding:

- If required, the Compliance Committee has approved the reconciliation between Accounting Records and supporting documents.
- v. Verify that all Management Statements from Senior Managers in all departments/operations is accepted and test the follow-up system used to ensure that all concerns and report has been handled or are being followed up by the Compliance Officer or designated representative.
- vi. Other areas and audit procedures that we deemed as necessary and approved by CARSURINCARSURIN.

We based our audit primarily on the information from the management or other information provided to us by the management and the company's staffs. We also conduct interviews with personnel in charge of the Compliance Program, including Compliance Officers, managers and other related Employees both at the group level or other Country. We also conduct tests, through sampling method, on documents related to the Company's policies, management and reporting structure, documents as well as the existing system in (state the visited country).

There is no international standard that is generally applied for this audit except for the existing Assurance Agreement. With the absence of such standard, we based our review approach on the best common practice and to the adjusted international Accounting Federation Code of Ethic standards.

Thus, we plan and conduct our own procedure to obtain sufficient ground to reach a conclusion. However, as we do not conduct audit procedure, we do not provide any audit opinion.

3. Audit Results

Based on our review, the following aspects are to be noted and followed up:

Based on our review procedure, with the exception of the above findings (if any) there are no other concerns which results us to believe that:

- i. The Compliance Program does not comply with the requirement of CARSURINCARSURIN Compliance Code;

- ii. The Compliance Program has not been properly implemented and executed;
- iii. The gathering, analysis and aggregation system on violation of Compliance Program is not functioning as initially designed, and
- iv. The Consolidated Financial Statement of the management related to remuneration of Broker Partners, donations to Political Parties, donations to charities and sponsors, unusual expenses on gifts, hospitalities and financings does not reflect the amount reported by reported affiliates or units.

4. Recommendations

From our work, we have provided the following recommendations to the management where it is agreed that:
